honorary doctorate degree by the University of Nebraska in 1950 and the Levi Strauss award in 1964. Acclaimed by literary critics as the nation's leading western writer, her life and work stand as a monument to the pioneers of Nebraska. Mari Sandoz, the brilliant voice of Nebraska, died of cancer in 1966 at the age of 70. We are proud of her. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Thank you, Senator Marsh. Thank you, Senator Pirsch. Women's History Week will continue all this week which is the bright note of the opening new day. Any corrections for the Journal, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: I have no corrections, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: How about messages and reports?

CLERK: Mr. President, your committee on Enrollment and Review respectfully reports they have carefully examined and reviewed LB 313 and recommend that same be placed on Select File; 181, 535, 573, 310, 329, 380, 406, all on Select File, signed by Senator Rod Johnson as Chair.

Mr. President, I have an Attorney General's opinion addressed to Senator Vickers regarding LB 45.

Mr. President, I have a gubernatorial appointment letter appointing people to the State Board of Health. I have a second letter from the Governor appointing someone to the Crime Victims Reparation Board.

Mr. President, a communication from the Governor addressed to the Clerk. (Read. See page 819, Legislative Journal. Re: LBs 114, 201, 203, 291.)

Mr. President, your committee on Public Works whose Chairman is Senator Schmit to whom was referred LB 378 instructs me to report the same back to the Legislature with the recommendation it be advanced to General File; LB 96 General File with committee amendments attached; LB 482 General File with committee amendments attached. Those are all signed by Senator Schmit.

Mr. President, a new resolution, LR 40. (Read. See page 820, Legislative Journal.) That will be laid over, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The resolution will be laid over. Senator Marsh has some special guests in the Chamber this morning. They are presently students at Syracuse University who came
